

Accessibility Checklist of Velomarathon «I see! I will! I can!» for cultural institutions, public administration and touristic sites

Place and/or institution; Country:

People carrying out the check:

Date:

INSTITUTIONS

(I) Pre-Information

1. Website of the Institution:

- Is the website's information in a format which can be read by a screen reader?

Present Not applicable

- Have the images on the website of the institution been supplied with alternative text attributes (also known as alt text) and/or descriptions below the pictures?

Present Not applicable

- Does the website have enough contrast for readers and are the letters large enough to read the content?

Present Not applicable

2. Does the institution offer print material about itself (bullets, information papers, brochures):

- In Braille?

Present Not applicable

- In enough contrast for readers and are the letters large enough to read the content (at least 14 point)?

Present Not applicable

Comments

(II) Way to the institution

1. Is there a tactile paving on the way to the entrance of the institution?

Present Not applicable

2. Is there a pedestrian path with curb cut and without significant damage (potholes, etc.) as well as obstacles that can be felt by a cane (pillars, columns, low-hanging branches, etc.)?

Present Not applicable

3. Entrance stairs:

- Do the entrance stairs have the same geometry (width and height) and a flat surface?

Present Not applicable

- Do the entrance stairs have good contrasting markers and a tactile warning paving?

Present Not applicable

- Do the entrance stairs have handrails?

Present Not applicable

4. Entrance door:

- Does the entrance door have enough contrast to the color of the wall?

Present Not applicable

- Are the elements of the door clearly distinguishable from the door (tonal contrast)?

Present Not applicable

- Is the door's threshold absent or low enough and safe as well as comfortable for walking?

Present Not applicable

Comments

(III) Service areas 1 (Entrance)

1. Is it allowed enter to the institution with a guide dog?
Present Not applicable
2. Does the information desk offer information like schedules, working hours and dashboards in Braille?
Present Not applicable
3. Is there a tactile model or plan of the building, emergency evacuation plans, etc.?
Present Not applicable
4. Are corridors and the walkway free of physical barriers?
Present Not applicable
5. Is there a tactile paving on the way to the reception, box office, counter, etc.?
Present Not applicable
6. Stairs:
 - Have the same geometry (width and height) and a flat surface?
Present Not applicable
 - Do the stairs have good contrasting markers and a tactile warning paving?
Present Not applicable
 - Do the stairs have handrails?
Present Not applicable
7. The door:
 - Does the door have enough contrast to the color of the wall?
Present Not applicable
 - Are the elements of the door clearly distinguishable from the door (tonal contrast)?
Present Not applicable
 - Is the door's threshold absent or low enough and safe as well as comfortable for walking?
Present Not applicable
8. Does the staff support visually impaired and blind people?
Present Not applicable

Comments

(IV) Actual visiting area

1. Does the institution offer descriptions about exhibits, paintings, pointers, etc. in Braille?
Present Not applicable
2. Does the information about the rooms, the exhibition halls and other spaces has enough contrast and is it large enough to read the content?
Present Not applicable
3. Audio guide and audio description:
 - Is there an audio guide and/or audio description?
Present Not applicable
 - Is it possible to use an own device (e.g. mobile phone) to receive a guide and/or audio description for visually impaired and blind people?
Present Not applicable
4. Are the rooms well-lit?
Present Not applicable
5. Is there a tactile system for some elements of the exhibition?
Present Not applicable
6. Is there any a tactile paving for orientation in the visiting area?
Present Not applicable

Comments

(V) Service areas 2

1. Do the toilets have a staff call button?

Present Not applicable

2. Does the information on signboard about the way to toilets, halls and/or offices have contrast?

Present Not applicable

3. Can the signboard of toilets, halls, offices, etc. be read in Braille?

Present Not applicable

Comments

PUBLIC SPACE

1. Is there a tactile paving on public space?

Present Not applicable

2. Are there accessible maps of the city (tactile, audio, etc.)?

Present Not applicable

3. Are there mini 3D models of architectural buildings and other urban objects?

Present Not applicable

4. Traffic lights:

- Do traffic lights have sound beacon (buoy)?

Present Not applicable

- Is there a tactile warning paving on the way to traffic lights and pedestrian crossings?

Present Not applicable

Comments